

Peter Sturmey, Ph.D.

“BA: Training Staff and Parents with Autistic Children”

Parma, Italy
18-19th June 2009

Topics of workshop are:

- Systems support for behavioural interventions in applied settings
- Overview of the Active Support Model and Positive Behaviour Support
- Activity Support Plans
- Activity Support Protocols and Community Logs
- Home and community settings as learning environments
- Opportunity Plan and Teaching Plans
- Selecting appropriate targets and teaching strategies
- Person Centered Individual Program Plans
- Design and use systems for monitoring procedural integrity
- Staff training: promoting client engagement, learning and participation through antecedent assistance and positive reinforcement.
- Practical session involving research on training methods
- Interactive Training simulations with practice tutors

PETER STURMEY

Dr. Sturmey has published over 100 peer-reviewed papers and numerous book chapters. He has recently edited Autism and Applied Behavior Analysis: Evidence and Practice (with A. Fitzer, PROED) and Functional Analysis and Clinical Treatment (Elsevier). He has also authored Behavioral Case Formulation (Wiley UK) and edited Varieties of Case Formulation (Wiley UK).

His current research interests focus on behavioral approaches to staff and parent training in autism services.

WHEN & WHERE

IESCUM headquarters, p.le Ravenet 5, Parma - Italy
8-19th June 2009

SUBSCRIPTION

The cost of the two-days workshop is € 250,00

Seats are limited. To register, please contact segreteria@iescum.org or visit www.iescum.org

INFORMATION

If you need any further information, feel free to contact us at segreteria@iescum.org, or visit www.iescum.org